

Proceedings of meetings of IQAC held on 20.3.2015

A meeting of Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Khalsa College Amritsar was held under the Chairmanship of Principal Dr. Mehal Singh in his office on 20.3.15 at 1 PM.

At the outset the members congratulated Dr. Mehal Singh on assuming the office of Principal Khalsa College Amritsar and hoped that college will attain new heights under his leadership.

Dr. Taminder Singh Co-ordinator, IQAC read out the proceedings of the previous meetings which were passed and confirmed by the members.

Principal Dr. Mehal Singh enumerated his priorities which included the framing of syllabi according to placement needs, lectures on personality development, holding of National Seminars/ Conferences, Alumni meet, Feedback from students, Guest Lectures, Educational Tours, Starting of new courses in the next session etc.

Prof. J. S. Gandhi suggested that University Grants Commission, New Delhi also supports the lectures on social cause such as AIDS, Drug Abuse, Female Foeticide etc.

S. Tejinder Singh Khalsa suggested that solar systems such as solar geysers should be used in hostels. The students should be guided by the career counseling cell for the proper choice of courses. Interactive sessions and discussions with students must be held regularly. Tutorial groups must be started to hear the problems of students.

Prof. Sukhdev Singh emphasized the need of taking help of old students to train the students.

Prof. Navneen Bawa suggested the formation of counseling committee.

Prof. Arvinder Kahlon emphasized the need of organizing Faculty Development Programs in the college.

Dr. Taminder Singh Co-ordinator thanked the members at the end of the meeting.